Huntsville Botanical Garden is going to the dogs: Fidos after Five returns in August and September

HUNTSVILLE – Fidos after Five is back at the Huntsville Botanical Garden! We invite our guests to bring their canine companions to enjoy the Garden on Monday – Thursday evenings (5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.) during August and September.

Whether strolling down a nature trail or chasing a Frisbee in the designated no-leash zone, you and your four-legged friends are bound to enjoy an evening with us. Pack a picnic, bring a blanket, and find your favorite spot to while away a couple of hours.

Fidos after Five is sponsored by Happy Tails Ranch. Members are free, regular Garden admission is charged for non-members. Dogs are $1 each, but a paw pass for $10 is good for the entire season.

HUNTSVILLE BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Huntsville Botanical Garden, located at 4747 Bob Wallace Avenue in Huntsville, AL, is open year-round and features the nation’s largest open-air butterfly house, a picture-perfect aquatic garden, spectacular nature trails, numerous specialty gardens – including an interactive children’s garden – and a variety of plant collections. This beautiful 112-acre Garden is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization run by only 35 employees and over 2600 active volunteers. With five distinct festivals each year – Beaks and Barks, Huntsville Blooms, Summer Butterfly House, Fall Scarecrow Trail, and Holiday Galaxy of Lights – you’ll soon see why we say, “There’s always something growing on at Huntsville Botanical Garden!” For more information and a schedule of events, visit www.hsvbg.org.
