Guidelines and Information:

- You have the choice of two ceremony locations
 - The Meadow at Lake Lonnie is a beautiful, wide open meadow with a metal archway that overlooks the lake with the backdrop of Hydrangeas and Cedar Trees.
 - The Conservatory is a sun filled room in the Guest Center with windows that look out into the Garden.
- If you choose an outdoor ceremony at the Meadow at Lake Lonnie and there is inclement weather, you may use the Conservatory, subject to availability.
- The maximum number of guests is 25. This includes the wedding party, officiant, photographer and guests.
- The Garden will provide up to 25 chairs for guests.
- Reception should be limited to cake and light refreshments.
- Total rental time includes set up and breakdown time.
- Event must take place during regular Garden hours.
- Access to the Garden is included for all guests. Photographs may be taken in all public areas of the Garden and in your rental space.
- Members of the wedding party should arrive dressed and ready. No dressing rooms are available.
- The Garden does not supply linens or décor.
- The Garden does not provide microphones, speakers or any other audiovisual equipment.
- No plants, benches, planters, or other Garden property may be moved, removed, or changed in any way.
- The Garden is a dynamic and public place. Please expect that there will be other visitors in the Garden during your event.
- COVID-19 Special Considerations: We have reduced the capacity of our venues to provide the opportunity for social distancing. You are responsible for your personal safety and the safety of your guests during your event at the Garden.
